Family Moment:

A covenant relationship changes Ruth's life completely. Talk with your family about covenant. What is it? How does it affect us as believers? In what ways are we still taking part in covenant relationships?

Monthly Musing

How are Ruth's covenant with Naomi and her relationship with Israel reflective of our relationship with the Father through redemptive work of Jesus Christ?

Scripture Writing

Take some time to copy out the following passages. Focus on where we have been and set your heart for where the Father is leading.

"But Ruth said, 'Do not urge me to leave you or to return from following you. For where you go I will go, and where you lodge I will lodge. Your people shall be my people, and your God my God."

—Ruth 1:16

"The Lord repay you for what you have done, and a full reward be given you by the Lord, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge!" -Ruth 2:12

"And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, 'May he be blessed by the Lord, whose kindness has not forsaken the living or the dead!' Naomi also said to her, 'The man is a close relative of ours, one of our redeemers." —Ruth 2:20

"Then the women said to Naomi, "Blessed be the Lord, who has not left you this day without a redeemer, and may his name be renowned in Israel!" -Ruth 4:14

Mystery Word 2nd King's Grandfather (4 letters) —————

Pearls from the Deep Dive:

Ruth is a foreshadowing (as so much of what we read is) of our Messiah as the kinsman redeemer.

This is a great rabbit trail for you to look into if you've a mind to.
