Family Moment:

When we set our heart to follow the Father, we are certain to meet with opposition, often in the form of ridicule and bullying. How will we face that opposition when it comes? How can we respond Biblically? What is our best response to those who are critical of our walk?

Monthly Musing

When the Father gives us a job, are we willing to work to see it completed? Are we lazy laborers?

Scripture Writing

Take some time to copy out the following passages. Focus on where we have been and set your heart for where the Father is leading.

“Then I replied to them, ‘The God of heaven will make us prosper, and we his servants will arise and build, but you have no portion or right or claim in Jerusalem.’” ~Neh. 2:20

“And I looked and arose and said to the nobles and to the officials and to the rest of the people, ‘Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your homes.’” ~Neh. 4:14

“I gave my brother Hanani and Hananiah the governor of the castle charge over Jerusalem, for he was a more faithful and God-fearing man than many.” ~Neh. 7:2

“Then he said to them, ‘Go your way. Eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions to anyone who has nothing ready, for this day is holy to our Lord. And do not be grieved, for the joy of the Lord is your strength.’” ~Neh. 8:10

Pearls from the Deep Dive:

If you pray for God to move a mountain, be prepared to wake up next to a shovel.
