Family Moment:

We repeat ourselves often as parents. Talk with your family about why. Why do we feel it's necessary? What are we trying to convey? Why do the Father and Moses both feel the need to repeat themselves in Deuteronomy?

Monthly Musing

Deuteronomy is very much a re-cap or summary of the Torah. What key points did you find highlighted in this book that we read about in the first four?

Scripture Writing

Take some time to copy out the following passages. Focus on where we have been and set your heart for where the Father is leading.

“Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart.” –Deu. 6:4-6

““The secret things belong to the Lord our God, but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.” –Deu. 29:29

“For this commandment that I command you today is not too hard for you, neither is it far off. It is not in heaven, that you should say, ‘Who will ascend to heaven for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?’ Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, ‘Who will go over the sea for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?’ 14 But the word is very near you. It is in your mouth and in your heart, so that you can do it.” -Deu. 30:11-14

“The Rock, his work is perfect, for all his ways are justice. a God of faithfulness and without iniquity, just and upright is he.” –Deu. 32:4
